Gaff's Blade Runner Chicken
Gaff's Blade Runner Chicken: I have used a two sided piece of origami paper for the diagrams in order to make it easier to understand the folding process. When making the Chicken, only a white piece of paper is required. I find common tracing paper cut to 3.5 inch size make a satisfactory replica.
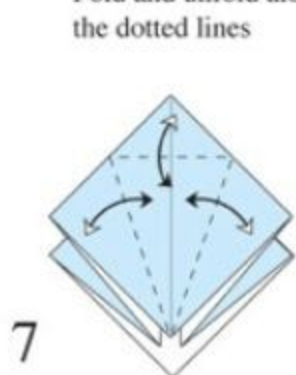

How to fold Gaff's

BLADE RUNNER Chicken
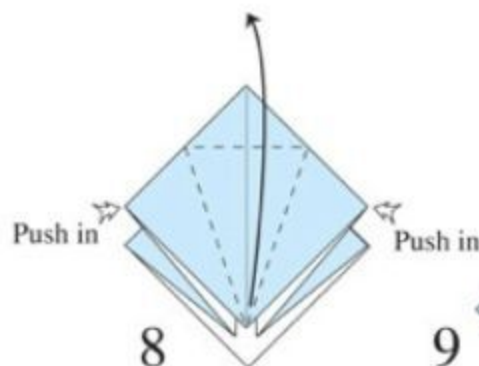

Diagramed by Kenneth Thompson
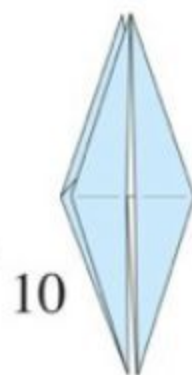

Supplies Needed:
1) 1 pieces of 3 inch square white paper.

1

2

3
Fold and unfold along
the dotted lines

4

5

6
Repeat process
on other side

7
Fold and unfold along
the dotted lines

8
Push in   Push in (Petal-fold) Pull up
to top point and fold
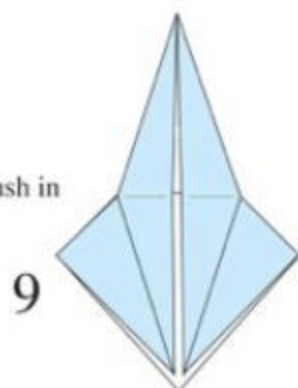

9

10

How to fold Gaff's
BLADE RUNNER Chicken

Diagramed by Kenneth Thompson

11

Fold to bottom

12

13

1/2
1/2

Fold 1/2 way
to top

14

14

Repeat steps 11-14
on other side

15

Flip both sides

16

Fold along red dotted line with an inside
reverse fold

17

Repeat process on other side
17

17a

An opened side view
of step 17
How to fold Gaff's
BLADE RUNNER Chicken
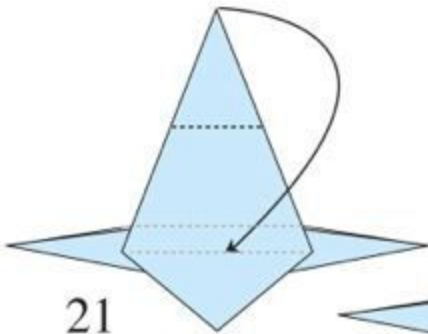

Diagramed by Kenneth Thompson
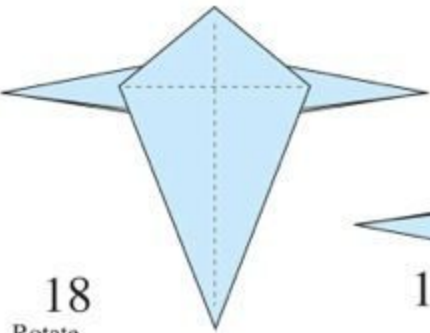

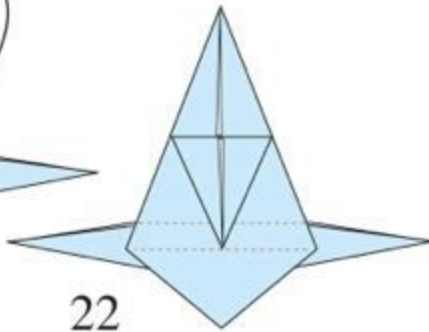

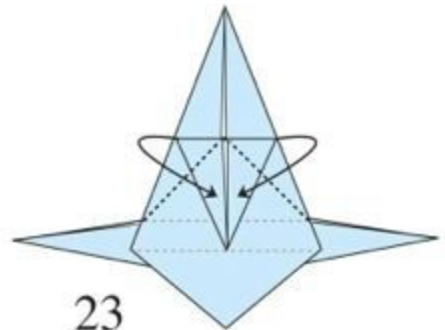

18

Rotate

19

Fold down to dotted line

20

Fold back up 21

Fold along dotted line
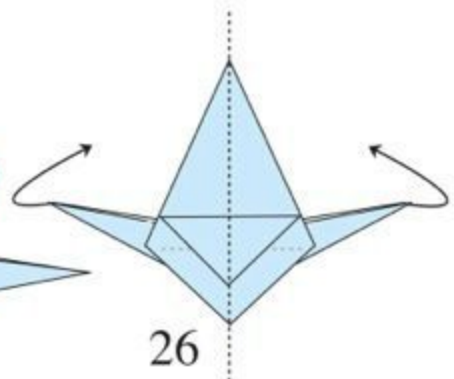

22

23

Fold along dotted lines

24

Fold down along dotted line

P. 3

25

26

Fold down along dotted lines in (step 27), while at the same time folding the body in half (step 28). You are pulling the legs together.

How to fold Gaff's
BLADE RUNNER Chicken

Diagramed by Kenneth Thompson

27
Pull the legs together until they touch

28

Side view.

29

Fold feet foward

30

Fold along dotted line

31

Fold along dotted line

32

Inside reverse fold

33

Fold along dotted line

34

Fold in along dotted line

35

Finished!